During the workshop the following matters will be addressed

AML CPD - Jersey

Have you ensured all your employees are aware of their responsibilities?

A key requirement of the ML/TF Regulations and associated rules and guidance concerning training apply to ALL relevant employees (including directors and senior managers) whose duties relate to actual financial services business.

As a minimum, all relevant employees must be told of developments and risk factors by having:

- Induction training for all new relevant employees prior to them becoming actively involved in day-to-day operations.
- Training at least once a year OR more often depending on the firms AML business risk assessment, an employees status (front/middle or back office) and/or changes to the environment (including: external laws, regulations and your own internal policies and procedures).

This COMSURE workshop is designed for all relevant employees both CUSTOMER FACING AND NON-CUSTOMER FACING. In addition the workshop is ideal for your Board of Directors (including Non-Executives), Risk Manager, Marketing Manager, Operations Manager & HR Manager.

- The AML environment - laws and orders and JFSC rules
- AML Policies and procedures - what is the difference and why they are important
- Probability of an offence crystallising - using leading case studies
- Risk of not reporting - using real case studies
- Understanding what ML & TF is - demystifying the myths!
- Government and other Sanction risk (e.g. HMT, EU, OFAC etc)
- Understanding the difference between KYC - ID&V - CDD
- Profiling customers - what does it mean, what you need to do
- Building and using trigger events
- Summary and key messages

PLEASE NOTE: The content can be amended and designed for the audience whether it's the board, senior managers or all employee refresher. All preparation is included in the fixed price.
